Help Shape Tomorrow's Workforce

Sponsor a Summer Youth Work Experience

Summer Youth Work Experience opportunities are funded through the Workforce Investment Act. WIA helps people develop the skills they need to succeed in the workforce.

C.L. "BUTCH" OTTER, GOVERNOR
ROGER B. MADSEN, DIRECTOR

A Summer Youth Work Experience is. . .

An opportunity for youth to learn important skills in a work environment.

- Punctuality
- Attendance
- Appearance
- Following instructions
- Completing tasks
- Showing initiative
- Building interpersonal relationships

How the Program Works. . .

- We connect eligible youth, ages 14 -24, with worksites that match their interests and abilities.
- You provide the environment, hands-on experience and supervision.
- Work assignments can last up to eight weeks between May and September.
- Hours and schedules are flexible.
- We pay the hourly minimum wage and cover FICA and workers' compensation.

Qualifying Employers are. . .

- Willing to teach important job skills for a future workforce.
- Aware of the benefits to investing in the skills of Idaho's youth.
- Interested in helping youth learn, improve and apply new-found job skills.
- Concerned about safety and follow child labor laws (www.youthrules.dol.gov).

What an Employer Gains. . .

- First-hand knowledge of the future workforce.
- A role in building that workforce.
- Dedicated individuals and work teams.
- Great workers at no cost.
- A sense of service to the community.

What an Employer Gives. . .

A positive workplace environment that encourages:

- Responsibility
- Leadership
- Teamwork
- Accountability
- Pride in a job well done
- A life-changing experience
